

quie - re que yo le quie - ra, man-de en - la - dril-lar el mar Y, you wish that I should love you, A pavement build o'er the sea, And face is so fair and e - - sa ca - ra de pas-cuas, E - se ta - - lle y e - - se pie, lle - wee; The ho - ly, Your waist and your foot so despues de en-la-dri - lla - do, Su - ya se - - re sin fal-tar. at - ter the pavements finished, Then I promise yours to be, vando - me es-ta Can - din-gas, Con per - don de su mer - ced.

spirit of ev - il seize me! I'm sick with love you see.
What have you to What have you to What have you to

tedi sayi
No le gus - to yai Will you not o - beyi Pues no se de - ten - ga, Then you need not lin - ger,
tedi sayi
Pues que no me da
Eer I pine a - - way, Hear my prayer in pi - do pi - ty,

Ya pue - de mar - char. You can go a - way,
? Que me di - ce us - tedi What have you to sayi
? No le gus - to Will you not o - Con tal an - cie - dad! Lis - ten to my lay.
? Que me di - ce us - tedi What have you to sayi Eer I pine a